

---

Bay City Ramblers – brief blurb (60 words)

---

Specialising in 1920s and 1930s acoustic blues, Americana and jazz, the Bay City Ramblers all sing and play a range of instruments, including some unusual ones, to capture the essence of American improvised music as it evolved from the Southern plantations to the New Orleans mix of ragtime, blues and carnival music to the hot sophistication and excitement of Chicago.